

As a 36 year old father of three children, I am so disgusted with MTV's continued violations of the decency standards of this country. The SuperBowl incident further highlights the need to revoke MTV's license and fine CBS heavily for their involvement. Anything less, and the FCC is neglecting their duties to the American people.